Baltzer & Shaw

We announce this week the name of J. Y. McConnell as our candidate for Surveyor of Fulton County. Mr. McConnell served as a member of the Board of Education, and has made a great official officer. He is one of the best known citizens of our county, hence needs no introduction at our hands. If elected he will make a good legislator.

A little two year old child of Mr. Ed. Trotter, living near his parents, in this county, was found dead in his bed-room, on Monday evening of last week. The child, clothing, ranged from a fire in the yard, and before noon was to be identified. Since Trotter is a negro, it had hardly hurt that it had shortly afterwards. Much sympathy extended the bereaved parents in the loss of their son, little child.

We are authorized to announce that Mr. A. Parker, a well-known speaker of Kentucky and the editor of the Kentucky Standard, will address the congregation of the First Baptist Church, on Sunday evening, at 7 P.M.

He will also speak at Frankfort on Friday, Nov. 2nd, at 8 P.M., and on Saturday, Nov. 3rd, at 1 P.M. or both of his appointments.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Eastern Kentucky Republican, edited and published by Wilson Arns and Morris Keas, of Hazard, Ky. The young ladies are practical, enterprising, set type, work the press, make the paper, wash the office towel, and play the devil generally; but how in the name of Heaven sense they can suppose the Republians are what they are, is what staggerers. —

The men who recruited the McKinley tailors, and women, that part of Kentucky, all down the river, with the young ladies unbound success in their venture, with the hope that they may soon come over on our side.
